

1	Urban Governance as Multi-scale Relations	1
	Theoretical Framework	2
	Research Methodology and Sources of Data	5
	The Research Locale	8
	Significance of the Study	10
 2	 Nasser's Agro-politan Planning	 11
	Capitalist Spatial Development and Egypt's Dependent Urban System	12
	Structural Predicaments of the 1950s and 1960s	15
	State-controlled Planning for Growth	18
	Nasser's Planning Industry: State Technocracy	20
	Planning Institutions	22
	Conclusion	30
 3	 The 'Open Door' Building and Construction Era	 35
	October Working Paper	35
	From Public Utility to Flexible Planning	37
	Hollowing Out the Professional Ethos	42
	Planning Vehicles	43
	Unintended Consequences of Opening the Door	50
	Conclusion	52

4	Wathiqat Misr for the Twenty-first Century	55
	Structures and Relations of the New Settlements Program	56
	Wathiqat Misr and the Controversies over the New Settlements Program	60
	The Interstices between Policies and Planning	64
5	The Millennium Pharaohs of Sixth of October	71
	The Initial Concept	71
	Planning Sixth of October	74
	Main Features of the General Plan	76
	The Governing Structure	81
	City Morphology	93
	Images of Sixth of October	96
	The Second Largest Governorate	98
	Conclusion	100